

NEWS RELEASE
Ashtabula County Commissioners
January 14, 2014

For immediate release

JOE MOROSKI NOT SEEKING RE-ELECTION AS ASHTABULA COUNTY COMMISSIONER

I want to thank the voters and citizens of Ashtabula County for the honor and privilege of working for them during my three terms as a county commissioner. After careful thought and deliberation, however, I have decided not to seek a fourth term in office.

I have been truly blessed, over the course of a lifetime, to have had the opportunity to serve my community, my county and my country. There can be no higher aspiration than striving to improve the lives and prospects of our residents and fellow Americans.

My grandfathers, on both sides, immigrated to America from eastern Europe when they were fourteen years of age. They came with little more than their belief in the American dream and promise that if you worked hard and did your best, a better life could be yours. They were right.

I will continue to work for Ashtabula County and its residents whenever and however I can. This is my home.

Again, thank you for the opportunity to work for you.

Joe Moroski
Ashtabula County Commissioner
